

YMCA of Long Island Privacy Policy

What personally identifiable information is collected on this site?

Visitors may supply personally identifiable information (such as name, address or telephone numbers) for various purposes on this site. These purposes include registering to receive e-mail newsletters, requesting further information about our services, or simply asking a question about YMCA of Long Island. YMCA of Long Island does not collect personal information from you unless you provide it to us. This means that you can visit our site without telling us who you are or revealing any personally identifiable information about yourself.

How is it used?

When you supply information about yourself for a specific purpose, we use the information for only that purpose (such as to provide the service or information you have requested). For example, you may be asked to give us individual information to receive information, manage online services, or apply for a job.

The YMCA of Long Island does not sell or share their e-mail addresses or other information with outside sources.

Should any material changes be made to the ways in which we use personally identifiable information, YMCA of Long Island will take commercially reasonable measures to obtain e-mail consent from you. We will also post the changes to our use of personally identifiable information on our site at least 30 days prior to a change.

Security

Personally identifiable information is stored on our server and is not publicly accessible. Further, personally identifiable information is only accessed by YMCA of Long Island employees on a "need to know" basis. All YMCA of Long Island employees must go through privacy training upon starting with YMCA of Long Island. YMCA of Long Island meets or exceeds all industry standards for the protection of personally identifiable information.

Choice/Opt-out

If you have registered to receive e-mail communications from us and later change your mind, you may contact us to have your name removed from our distribution lists. You have the following options to do this:

You can send an e-mail to contactus@ymcali.org.

You can send mail to the following address:

Information Technology Director
YMCA of Long Island
121 Dosoris Lane

Correct/Update

If you would like to verify the data we have received from you or to make corrections to it, you may contact us directly at the e-mail and mail addresses provided above.

What anonymous information is collected on this site?

Anonymous information is collected for every visitor to this site. This includes pages viewed, date and time, and browser type. IP numbers are not stored, but are temporarily used to determine domain type and in some cases, geographic region. We do not make any association between this information and a visitor's identity.

How is it used?

The anonymous information is viewed by YMCA of Long Island to offer you personalized content and promotions, and to target relevant, more interesting content -- all without knowing your identity

How does this site use cookies?

YMCA of Long Island uses cookies to identify your browser as you visit pages on the YMCA of Long Island site or sites in the YMCA of Long Island media network. Cookies allow YMCA of Long Island to gather anonymous information. Cookies also allow YMCA of Long Island to provide more relevant, targeted content as you travel through sites in the YMCA of Long Island media network.
